II. DISCUSSION

A. U.S. Patent No. 3,042,998

The '998 patent was cited as a D-type and an A-type reference in a Search Report for corresponding German Patent Application No. 101 12 895.9. An A-type reference provides technical background and is not pertinent to patentability.

B. U.S. Patent No. 4,870,311

The '311 patent was cited as a D-type and an A-type reference in a Search Report for corresponding German Patent Application No. 101 12 895.9.

C. U.S. Patent No. 5,231,374

The '374 patent was cited as a D-type and an A-type reference in a Search Report for corresponding German Patent Application No. 101 12 895.9.

D. German Reference No. 34 14 211

Based solely on the drawings and the English language Abstract filed in parent application 10/043,885, the '211 reference is pertinent because it appears to disclose a voltage supply that has a slider that is displaced along two longitudinal conductor paths. It is believed that U.S. Patent No. 4,617,505 corresponds to the '211 reference.

The '211 reference was cited as an Y-type reference in a Search Report for corresponding German Patent Application No. 101 12 895.9. A Y-type reference is pertinent when combined with another Y-type reference.

E. German Reference No. 94 01 715.8

Based solely on the drawings, the '715.8 reference is pertinent because it appears to disclose a camera system with annular electrical contacts.

The '715.8 reference was cited as an Y-type reference in a Search Report for corresponding German Patent Application No. 101 12 895.9.

F. German Reference No. 43 16 142

Based solely on the drawings and the English language Abstract filed in parent application 10/043,885, the '142 reference is pertinent because it appears to disclose a linear drive with one or more electrically conductive conductor tracks that have slit contacts. A connection preventing device prevents electrical contact between the slit contact and the conductive track.

The '142 reference was cited as an Y-type reference in a Search Report for corresponding German Patent Application No. 101 12 895.9.

III. CONCLUSION

It is believed that none of these references, alone or in combination, disclose or suggest the invention claimed. However, Applicant wishes to make it clear that the disclosure of the above references is in no way an admission that they qualify as prior art. It is Applicant's desire, however, to have these references available in the record for both the Examiner and the public to see. Applicant therefore requests that the Examiner review the entire disclosure of each reference and make the above-listed references of record. Applicant also invites the Examiner to review the cited U.S. Patent Application and the enclosed associated Amendments and the art cited therein.
